

Legacy International - Why We Do What We Do:

At Legacy International, we believe that the most effective and sustainable solutions come from strong civil society and social innovators. Since 1979, Legacy International equips emerging leaders to transform their values and vision into sustainable success. Training professionals in for-profit and non-profit sectors with an emphasis on creating new employment opportunities and supporting critical social ventures is a foundation for all programming. Legacy staff and its Teams of Excellence (TM) design customized training programs that increase the potential for success and foster values of social entrepreneurship.

*Highlighted countries indicate the reach of Legacy International's work

What We Do

- #1: Short and long-term training & certification programs.
- #2: Community-based leadership development experiences.
- #3: Training of trainers programs.
- #4: Professional consultation services.
- #5: Concentrated courses with a travel & study tour components.
- #6: Online collaborative project planning platform, webinars, & video conferencing

Our Impact

Since 1979, 10,000 alumni in 105 countries have impacted over 700,000 others through community projects.